THIS MONTH'S COVER

One of our MWR NAF Support Services Division facilities is the Facility Maintenance Branch which employs a variety of skilled craftsman.

One of their responsibilities is to assemble all of the large canopies that are used for all major events at Camp Zama.

Another responsibility is to apply their skills to improve the appearance of areas in our various MWR facilities. Some projects of late are the Japanese style shouji entrance and wallpaper at the Camp Zama library; the Zama CDC counter; the CZCC patio; Eda's wallpaper, wine rack and waitress area; the Hob NOB inn patio; and the bar counter and DJ booth at the Sagami Lounge - to name a few. Our cover this month shows, left to right, Furniture Repairer Hirohisa Minagawa and Facility Maintenance Foreman Kenji Osada putting the finishing touches of the new counter for the SHA CDC.

YOUTH BOWLER OF THE MONTH

Dustin Win, age 14, is a member of the Zama Middle School Bowling Club. Dustin has been bowling only 2 years and has an average of 178. On 18 January at the Zama Bowling Center, Dustin was bowling like a professional. He had nine strikes in a row. Dustin got up to the line, got comfortable in his stance, and proceeded to roll his ball. The ball swung out to the right of the lanes to about the 5 board then it hooked straight into the right pocket of the pins. The pins seemed to jump up together, but the number 10 pin refused to fall. Dustin was disappointed but rolled his second ball and missed the 10 pin. He still ended up with a great score of "267". Great job Dustin. You have earned the title of "YOUTH BOWLER OF THE MONTH".

Super Bowl Party was "SUPER"

Special Guest: Tampa Bay Buccaneer Cheerleaders

Cheerleaders, Soldiers, door prizes, great food---and add a pair of "Kings"-----all highlighted the 5 February Super Bowl Party. The packed ballroom, estimated at approximately 450 attendees, began lining up as early as 6 am and included personnel from Yokota, North Dock and Yokosuka, plus civilian and installation Japanese employees.

The two extremely happy "King" winners were CW3 Shannon Sherman and Airman Chad Parsons. This special drawing winner sat with the "Buc" cheerleaders as their special guest for the quarter. They also received five prizes to include a sports bag and TGI Friday's, a combination folding sports chair with side table, and a beautiful Department of the Army stein.

As in the past several years, the focus and major attraction at the Party were the Tampa Bay Buccaneer cheerleaders. When they started their dance routine at 7:45 am the crowd quickly got into the spirit of the Party. They met every request for a photo and proved to be excellent ambassadors for the National Football League (NFL).

One of the USA's major sporting events can be summed up as SUPER AUDIENCE---SUPER GAME---SUPER PARTY. It was SUPER too!!! Thanks for making our day a memorable one.
